Upon examination of the coins sent for my inspection I have concluded to retain the "Continental Currency" and herewith enclose draft on N.Y. to pay for same $8.50. The sixpence I return as I think the price too high. The Variety as per Crosby - (as I make it) Obv. 1a Rev D is the least rare of any of the Varieties. I know the condition is very fine but I bought shillings & threepences in as good condition and rarer Varieties of their kind, than yours for less money than you ask by considerable. I could not pay more than $7.00 for the sixpence If upon further consideration you think it advisable, in order to promote a still larger business between us, to send the sixpence at above figures you can do so. I shall be glad to hear from you when you have anything fine in the "Colonial" line & to receive Catalogues when you have any for sale. Please acknowledge receipt & oblige

I have looked through a good many sales and find very fine ones, and two dollars is the highest price I found. Perhaps yours may be worth more. You warrant it genuine, original piece?

The "Mark Newby Shilling" silver, I will pass for the present, perhaps some time in Jan I may write you in regard to it. I have never seen one. I have read Crosby's description, and in the last part of his work, he remarks that some of the silver pieces previously described are copper silver plated.

I enclose one dollar for the James H tin piece please send me a bill of same receipted. When you sent me this piece for inspection you note that it was superior in impression to the one in the sale, that sold for 110. You now write that it was the one in the sale. I am at a loss to know how it can be the same piece and yet be superior, perhaps you can explain.

I have several projects on hand and at present do not care for the cents you speak of.

Yours Respt.

I have examined the coins rec'd from you and find I have the same Var of Wass Shilling and a better impression so do not care for this. The New York cent I will keep at your price ($14.00) and will take the Nova Constellatio at .75 that will give you 25% commission on this piece or will return it, as you wish and take my chances of buying one at auction for less. I will hold all until I hear from you in order to save a little expense. The Shilling I have (like yours) only cost me 3.75.

Your postal at hand, you undoubtedly can get 1.50 for the Nova, C, and it is a fine one. But I think you ought to make some difference if a person is trading considerable. I have found that your prices have ranged higher than others from whom I have obtained coins. I return the two coins by Exp (paid) and enclose in the Reg $14.00 for which please send me a bill of the N.Y. Cent. receipted.

Much oblig'd

Your favr containing Vermont cut for my inspection at hand. I have examined it and in comparison with what I have do not think it is enough better to warrant my buying it. I return it by registered post and obliged to you for affording me an opportunity of seeing it

Messrs Chapman,

Gent

Your package containing purchases at the Hamilton Sale came to hand today with 20¢ ad. charges which is cheap.

I must say I am not at all pleased with the purchase. My bids were with the understanding, as expressed in my letter, that they were all in fine condition & nearly priced. I find them as follows.

No 1142 OK
" 1158 Tennessee some of them dirty on sole page and not fit to wear

1 1193 one priced in pencil

" 1180 2 pr. 1 no good, 1 badly priced mostly in heel

1 1180 1 pr. 1 pair, 1 [illegible]

" 1180 all right
